Southern Headache Society Education Award

This exciting program is aimed to provide neurology residents, child neurology residents, and headache medicine fellows with an exciting opportunity to learn more about headache medicine from leading experts. We hope that attendance at our Southern Headache Society meeting may inspire early trainees to choose neurology and/or headache medicine as their specialty. Our meeting allows trainees to establish important networks within the southern region. We anticipate limiting the award to one recipient per residency or fellowship program.
